Market Dull and Sluggish and Was Inclined to Sag Somewhat.

THE U. S. STEEL DIVIDEND

Believed That It Will be Declared To-day-Bonds Heavy and Dull.

NEW YORK, July 25.—Speculation in Blocks to-day was dispirited and decidedly uninteresting. The market was dull and sluggish. The recent notable firmness of the inderione in spite of the declining activity of the demand, was lacking to-day and the market was inclined to sag. The movement was desultory and slowed no signs of the precipitation which usually marks the cuimination of an active speculative advance. The action of the market was not clearly related to the news of the day, but the drop of prices was in spite of some happenings, favorable in the same way that bad news has been ignored on the advance. There was a direct reversal of the recent tone of railroad efficial comment on the outlook. The early market was assisted by some buying for London account. There is no great doubt remaining amongst the speculative contingent that the regular quarterly dividend on United States Steel preferred will be declared to-morrow. That stock was lieuvy, nevertheless, in common with the list. Some of the stocks of independent companies made sharp advances. The market closed irregular at some slight recovery from the lowest.

Bonds were heavy and dult; total sales, per value, $1,740,000.
United States two's and the old four's declared the contract of the
